

Friday May 10, 2013: Planning for your Family's Financial Future

Topic: During this workshop, Mark will discuss some of the real life issues regarding family finances. He will give practical tips for spouses to consider, questions people should ask each other, and long-term issues that should be discussed.

Biography: Mark Brunelle, CFP, CLU, CHS from Brunelle Financial Planning Group Ltd. is the third generation of Brunelle's in the financial business. He loves to learn about all his products so that he can help advise and guide each of his clients through the difficult financial life planning decisions. A father of 5, Mark he has been married for 22 years. He is passionate about passing on a healthy financial future for the next generation.

Scan QR code below to add my contact info to your Smartphone

