

Structure and Responsibility

Policy No. PD400

Policy Statement: Arising from his promise of obedience, the deacon remains accountable to the Archbishop or his delegate (typically the pastor) for the performance of his ministry, and the exercise of his faculties and canonical duties. When a deacon is ordained, he is given a canonical appointment with all the faculties, duties and rights of a deacon according to the norms of Canon Law.

Organizational Structure

